It is almost superfluous to say anything in praise of a production by Augustin Daly in advance. The bare announcement that Mr. Daly is to pre- ing away. gent at the Hyperion his elaborate speciacular production of Shakespeare's fairy comedy, "A Mid-Summer Night's Dream," a work of masterful stage invention and wonderful picture effects over which the metropolis of two hemispheres have gone into ecstacies, ought a itself be sufficient to crowd the

Mr. Daly has caught the poetry of Shakespeare's delightful comedy and et it to Mendelssohn's dreamy music, All the scenery, costumes and effects of the original production are to be rought to New Haven. The company also carries its own orchestra. Two performances will be given, one this ifternoon and one this evening. One of the most important producions put forth this season, in a literary ense, at least, will be "Chimmie Fad den," a dramatization of Edward Townsend's remarkable book of that title. Charles H. Hopper, a comedian f magnetism and splendid method, will appear as Chimmie.
